

LYLE R. MINK

EDUCATION

Legal

Loyola Law School, Los Angeles
J.D., June 1971

Articles Editor, Loyola University Law Review, 1970-1971
Member, Loyola University Law Review, 1969-1970
Teaching Fellow, 1970-1971
St. Thomas More Honor Society

California Bar Admission, January 1972

College

California State University, Northridge B.S., Finance, 1967
University of Illinois Economics, 1962-1965

EXPERIENCE

December 2010 – Present

Cohen & Lord, a Professional Corporation Of Counsel

Business litigation, emphasis on partnerships, corporations, unfair competition, real estate, construction, fraud, and general commercial disputes in state and federal courts.

1976 - Present

Lyle R. Mink, a Law Corporation

Business litigation, emphasis on partnerships, corporations, unfair competition, real estate, construction, fraud, and general commercial disputes in state and federal courts.

Arbitrator, Los Angeles County Judicial Arbitration Program.

State court receiver, Superior Court of Los Angeles County.

1974 - 1976

Weissburg & Aronson

Business litigation, emphasis in healthcare and general commercial disputes.

1972 – 1974

Swerdlow, Glickbarg & Shimer

Business litigation, emphasis in real estate, construction, intellectual property, partnerships, corporations, unfair competition, fraud, and general commercial disputes in state and federal courts.

1971 – 1972

Research attorney for Donald R. Wright, Chief Justice, Supreme Court of California

Legal research, preparation of memoranda and decisions

1969

Law clerk to John J. Ford, Presiding Justice, Second Appellate District, Division Three, Court of Appeal of California

Legal research, preparation of memoranda and decisions