

KAREN D. MAHER

EDUCATION

Legal

University of Southern California Law Center
J.D., May 1999
Editor-in-Chief, Southern California Law Review

California Bar Admission, December 1999

College

Lamar University
B.A., Communications, 1990, summa cum laude
Otho Plummer Award (top graduate)
Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society
D.W. Griffith Award, Most Distinguished Graduating Senior in Communications
Eta Pi Lambda Communications Honor Society
Dean's List, 1987-1990

EXPERIENCE

December 1999 – Present

Cohen & Lord, a Professional Corporation

All phases of business, construction and commercial litigation in state and federal courts

May 1998 – September 1998

Law Clerk to the Honorable Diane Wayne

(Retired, Superior Court; Mediator/Arbitrator/Discovery Referee, Alternative Dispute Resolutions Services)

Legal research, drafting reports and arbitration awards

May 1997 – August 1997

Los Angeles City Attorney's Office, Criminal Division

West Los Angeles Branch

Intern

February 1992 – August 1996

Sports Marketing

U.S. Professional Tennis Association

AGC California

Fall Conference Committee, 2008 – 2010

Legal Advisory Committee, 2008 – 2009

PUBLICATIONS

Limitation of Liability Provisions: One Size May Not Fit All,
California Constructor, Vol. 8, No. 3 (March 2008)